ARMY HASN'T SLIGHTEST CHANCE

High Officials Admit for First Time that the Expedition Into Mexico in Pursuit of Villa is a Failure

STRIKE SPREADS TO SPRINGFIELD

Westinghouse Electric Employees Demand Better Wages and Conditions.

(Special to The Herald)
Springfield, Mass., April 22.—The trouble among the employees of the Westinghouse Electric Company which developed in Pittsburgh, Pa., has developed in this city. The 600 men at the East Springfield plant walked out today. The men voted last night to strike unless the company agreed to their demands for better wages and working conditions. This demand was refused and the strike followed.

(Special to The Herald)
El Paso, April 22.—American army officials in El Paso admitted today for the first time that the expedition sent into Mexico has not the slightest chance of taking Villa dead or alive. They forced the withdrawal of the U. S. troops. It has developed that there was a more truth than fiction in the Carranza claim that the Chihuahua-Durango boundary was the deadline of advance of the American troops. None of the American soldiers have crossed this line. To the south of it in Durango, Villa is strengthening his forces with each passing hour. To the north of it the Americans are resting on their arms awaiting the result of the conference between Major Gen. Scott and Maj. Gen. Funston at San Antonio. If it were decided to continue the hunt for the bandit chief the task would be made much more difficult by the opportunity that has been given to Villa to gain fresh recruits and ammunition.

13,000 WORKERS ON STRIKE

3,000 of Whom Are Women and Girls at Westinghouse Electric Co., Pittsburgh.

(Special to The Herald)
Pittsburgh, Pa., April 22.—Joining hands at every entrance to the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing plant at East Pittsburgh today, the strikers forced those who are still at work to break through the "hand chain" to enter the establishment. Only 4,000 employees of the plant are at work today; 13,000 are on strike, 3,000 of whom are women and girls. The strikers plan to march to every plant of the company in the Pittsburgh district today in an effort to bring on a general strike. There have been several minor disturbances.

KAISER WILL DRAFT REPLY

(Special to The Herald)
Paris, April 22.—Germany's reply to America's ultimatum on submarine warfare will be drafted by Emperor William and the Imperial Chancellor as the Kaiser's headquarters in a chalet at Meiringen. The Kaiser has been slaying with his staff ever since the attack on Verdun was launched and there he and the chancellor held their first conference on the American note Friday.

VON BERNSTORFF MAY BE INVOLVED

Papers of Wolf Von Igle Seized in New York, Sent to State Department to Determine What Action Will Be Taken

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, April 22.—The amazing interwoven series of activities of pro-German agents in the United States today was entangled in the already complicated relations with Germany to an extent that promised far-reaching complications. With Germany debating the ultimatum of the United States that she forthwith abandon her submarine operations against merchant shipping, the State Department found itself forced to seriously consider allegations affecting the activities of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, which, if proven, must at least seriously curtail his activities in this country. Attorney General Gregory laid before Secretary of State Lansing a part of the papers seized in the recent raids in New York city which implicated in the arrest of Wolf von Igle, whose immediate release from custody on the ground that he was an accredited member of his official family, was made by Ambassador von Bernstorff. Previously Secretary Lansing had ruled that such of these papers as were a part of the German embassy records must be returned to the embassy. To this ruling, the Department of Justice has objected. It sent what it claimed was the official papers to the State Department today with a request that the Department itself examine them and then determine whether they should not be utilized by this government in at least demanding an explanation from Count von Bernstorff of allegations therein contained which on their face seemed to implicate him in actions which violated the neutrality of the United States.

WILSON ALONE WILL DECIDE

With the President Rests the Question Whether the Hunt for Villa Shall Continue or the Troops Be Withdrawn

(Special to The Herald)
San Antonio, April 22.—With President Wilson alone, rests the question of withdrawing American troops from Mexico or ordering the hunt for Villa to continue. This was made here today following a preliminary conference between Major Gen. Scott and Major Gen. Funston. Neither of those army officers, it was learned, has the authority to act. On his return to Washington, Gen. Scott will report to Secretary of War Baker the result of his visit to the border. The secretary will in return apprise the president of Scott's verdict and Wilson will then decide what is to be done. The first conference between Scott and Funston lasted until early this morning. They went over in a general way a report from Gen. Pershing, showing the position of the American troops now in Mexico, but consideration of the detailed information was put over until today's meeting.

MANY TROOPS AT COLUMBUS

Little Frontier Town Assuming Aspects of Important Military Center.

(Special to The Herald)
Columbus, N. M., April 22.—This little frontier town again is assuming the aspects of an important military center. By Monday the last of the 2500 fresh troops ordered here and held subject to General Pershing's orders will be encamped. The 17th Infantry under Major Robert Alexander, arrived today to join the first and second battalions of the 24th Infantry already here. The 6th cavalry is expected at any time.

POLICE WORKING QUIETLY ON STILLSON CASE

The police today are following up everything that might possibly throw some light on the Stillson murder case. Chief Hurley said today that the officers are working continually on the matter and that everything that might help them in making an arrest is being thoroughly investigated. While the officers are quietly working in certain ways to bring something to the surface, Chief Hurley declined to say much for publication, believing that the officers would be handicapped should certain information be published at the present time. If the officers are on the right track they may possibly make an arrest on Monday, next. Until then they are keeping things to themselves.

STEVENS OUT FOR NOMINATION

Will Be Democratic Candidate for Congressman in the Second District.

Concord, April 22.—Raymond B. Stevens of Landaff has informally, though definitely, let it be known that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman in the second district at the September primary.

Stevens, who has been talked of as the probable man to carry the fight to Congressman Edward H. Watson next fall, acceded to the requests of his old party leaders in Washington last week. He has a job as counsel for the federal state commission, which he likes. It is said he was not particularly desirous to give it up but he seems now to have given way to what the leaders consider the exigencies of the case and will make the run.

It is understood that Stevens will make a strenuous campaign.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

The all-steel body and its beautiful finish are peculiar to this car, and the one is made possible by the other.

If a wooden frame were used it would not be practical to apply the enamel which gives the body its lustrous finish. The body is electrically welded into a unit. Then the enamel is baked on at a high temperature.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The price of the Touring Car or Roadster complete is $785 (C.O.D. Detroit).

ONE CENT GASOLINE

Henry Ford Investigating Experiments of a Long Island Inventor.

New York, April 22.—Henry Ford stood Farmingdale, L. I., up-gassing Friday afternoon when it became known that he was closeted with Louis B. Enright, having a heart-to-heart talk in regard to the cent-a-gallon substitute for gasoline, which Mr. Enright announced a few days ago he could make out of water by the addition of a pinch of secret chemical compound to that plentiful fluid. There have been many visitors in Farmingdale recently to see Mr. Enright, but it was the first time a real automobile manufacturer had appeared on the scene.

To complete the air castle only a successful demonstration of the fluid and its unequalled indorsement by Mr. Ford was needed. Mr. Ford and Mr. Enright talked together for only one hour, in private. It was stated, and at 5 p. m. Mr. Ford was speeding back to New York.

Later on when Mr. Ford comes to New York again, a demonstration of the fluid will be made in a new Ford. Theodore Dalrymple, Mr. Ford's secretary, said at the Baltimore hotel, when asked how Mr. Ford was impressed by his talk with Mr. Enright, Mr. Dalrymple said:

"He thought it was worth following up. That is about all that can be said. Mr. Ford is careful in his moves, going forward a step at a time. He wanted to talk with Mr. Enright first; he did not have time for a demonstration today. You see, Mr. Ford is something of a chemist himself, and he no doubt could ask Mr. Enright a number of questions. These answers must not have been unsatisfactory, or the matter would have been dropped. Mr. Ford is on the lookout for a cheap motor fuel; he has a number of investigators working on it himself. This demonstration will be arranged so as to test thoroughly the mixture of Mr. Enright."

Mr. Enright declined to give out any information about his talk with Mr. Ford. He said he would leave to Mr. Ford to make public whatever there was to make public about their interview.

Enright, seriously ill, remains about the same. His mother, Mrs. Harry Whitaker of Fall River, arrived on Thursday to remain with her a few days.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If peevish, feverish and sick, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children. It's a safe, tea-spoonful, and in a few hours, all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, which is clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ORDERS SPEED IN REPAIRING

Sec. Daniels Wants Work on Ship Construction Rushed

Washington, April 22.—Orders to speed up repair and overhaul work on vessels of the Atlantic fleet have been sent to the commanders of the various navy yards by Secretary Daniels. In case of labor shortage, the commanders are instructed to expedite the work by employing the ship's personnel.

The move was explained as a "preparedness test," the execution of which would illustrate how quickly the vessels could be restored to normal condition after their strenuous winter operations and placed in readiness for the battle practice and maneuvers beginning on May 11.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt has been in conference with officials of the New York yard attempting to arrange for the employment of a sufficient force of mechanics and other skilled men to operate that plant on a night and day schedule.

Secretary Daniels said that the officials were experiencing great difficulty in securing laborers for the government wages and also the delay of delivery of materials ordered for repair work and construction of the vessels now being built. Offers of better pay and advantage of extra work at double time, he said, were attracting the workmen to private employ and creating the scarcity of labor at the yards.

MAKES 8TH DEMAND FOR SEIZED PAPERS

Germany's Almost Frantic Efforts to Recover the Documents from Van Pape's Secretary Sets Washington to Thinking

Washington, April 21.—The extreme seriousness with which the German embassy regards the seizure in New York of papers in the keeping of Wolf von Igel, secretary to Capt. von Pape, was revealed today when the eighth demand for their return was made to the state department.

Prince Hatzfeldt, counselor of the embassy, accompanied by an attorney called at the state department for that purpose. It became known that this was the fifth time the papers had been asked for verbally and that three written demands had been made on the state department.

Ambassador Bernstorff was in New York today presumably in connection with the same matter.

The home government has been advised by wireless concerning the seizure of the papers, but it is not known whether any instructions have been received by Bernstorff.

Whether the state department's proposal that all the von Igel papers be submitted to Bernstorff in order that he may select from them those properly the property of the embassy, will prove acceptable to the ambassador is not known. It was indicated today he might set on this suggestion, but his consistent demand has been that he be given all the papers, all the photographs taken of them and the photographs plates.

Grand Jury May Probe Bomb Plot

New York, April 21.—A nation-wide grand jury investigation of the activities of German agents, government and private, in connection with bomb plots is today in prospect following the disclosures in the confession of Baron Horst von der Goltz made public in London.

Several persons, now to the consular offices, are mentioned by name, and several others are designated by their positions at the time of the plot activities. U. S. Dist. Atty. Marshall now has Von der Goltz at Ellis Island, and is believed to have from him a great deal more information than is contained in the confession made public by the British.

This will be at the disposal of federal authorities at Buffalo, Chicago, St. Paul and El Paso, cities whose consuls, from Germany, were identified with the plots, according to the confession. The plot concerned the blowing up of Welland canal locks, railroad terminals, bridges and other facilities, which destroyed would hamper the shipment of supplies and men from Canada to the allies.

JAPAN PROTESTS AGAINST BURNETT IMMIGRATION BILL

Washington, April 21.—Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, conferred with President Wilson today over the provision of the pending immigration bill which proposed to enact into law the so-called gentleman's agreement restricting the immigration of Japanese laborers. Two memorandums on the subject have been presented to the state department.

The proposed inclusion in a law of an informal agreement, which Japan has promised on honor to fulfill, according to the agreement between former Secretary Root and former Ambassador Takahira is understood to be repugnant to the Japanese government. Other proposed Asiatic exclusion features in the bill as it has passed the House and has been reported to the Senate are understood to be the subjects of objection.

For many obvious reasons the attitude of the Administration is said to be one of disinclination to irritate the situation between Japan and the United States which has been subsiding since the California anti-alien land law negotiations went into an indefinite stage three years ago. Administration officials are not unkindly of anti-Asiatic sentiment in Congress, particularly among members from the Pacific coast states, and their constant endeavor has been to allay it.

The United States "never has replied to Japan's last note on the California land law. The last that was said on the subject was said by former Secretary Bryan to Ambassador Chinda when the negotiations got into the stage of apparent deadlock and the ambassador on taking his departure from a conference at Secretary Bryan's office inquired if he were to transmit the last word of the United States to his government. To that Secretary Bryan replied:

"There never can be a last word between friends."

"One portion of the bill which is understood to draw the resentment of the Japanese government is the inclusion, by inference at least, of Japanese in the excluded class with Hindus, although the same paragraph of the bill excepts from the exclusion such as are covered in "existing agreements." This phrase refers to the Root-Takahira agreement.

GERMAN ADMIRALTY HEAD SAYS CAN'T CONCEDE MORE

"Don't Want to Break With U. S., That Would be Insanity," Says Von Holtzendorff, "But Kaiser Can't Comply With U. S. Demands."

Berlin, April 20, via wireless to Tuckerton, N. J., April 21.—Germany can go no further in her submarine conceptions to the United States, Admiral von Holtzendorff, chief of the German admiralty staff declared in an interview today.

"But remember," said the German naval head later during the course of the interview, "that we have no desire for a break with the United States. That would be insanity. We shall not bring it about, despite our desire to push vigorously our submarine warfare."

"We did not sink the Sussex," said Admiral von Holtzendorff. "I am as convinced of that as of anything which has happened in this war. If you could read the definite instructions, the exact orders each submarine commander has, you would understand that the torpedoing of the Sussex was impossible."

"Many of our submarines have returned from rounding up British vessels. They sighted scores of passenger ships going between England and America, but not one of these was touched although we know every one of them was carrying war munitions for the allies."

"We have definitely agreed to warn the crews and passengers of passenger liners. We have lived up to that promise in every way, but we cannot be asked to regard freight ships in the same manner. This is beyond the border for any belligerent nation."

Made Many Sacrifices

"I speak in straightforward manner. We could have destroyed hundreds of thousands of tons of enemy ships since the beginning of the submarine war, except for the promises we gave the United States, but we cannot go further."

"Five months more will see what we can do to British shipping. The ring around the British Isles will grow tighter and tighter. Then we shall see whether England will still maintain that she cannot make peace until Germany is destroyed. The allies could have had peace long ago, but they still cling to the idea of starving Germany into submission. The longer they cling on and prolong the war, the greater will be their bill."

"What I said about freight ships applies only to enemy freight ships. We are not going to torpedo and we have not torpedoed without warning or without examining the ship's papers or crew, any neutral ship, despite reports which the enemy is spreading. We are not out to torpedo without warning. Our submarines have respected every one of them so far and they have met scores in the North Sea, the Channel and the Atlantic."

Relies on American Public

"If diplomatic relations with America are broken, our submarines can attack any enemy ship without warning. But remember, we have no desire for a break with the United States. That would be insanity. We shall not bring it about despite our desire to push vigorously our submarine warfare."

"I do not think the American people want to declare war against Germany for the way she is conducting her submarine war now. I don't think America wants to protect England. I don't think the American people want to do everything they can to help England by even by protecting English freight ships with American lives."

"People must remember that it is risky to travel on the seas to and from England today. They must watch the ships' character. If England boasts her mastery of the seas and her rule of the waves, she must accept the responsibility and the liability of Germany."

"Germany is at war with England. Germany must attack England's life nerve, which is her shipping. We have means through our submarines to do this and we must go ahead. England is the one responsible for American lives on her freight ships. We cannot warn Americans on board any more than we can send word to neutrals who may be in enemy trenches before we attack. It is the same situation on the seas exactly and still we know that all passenger ships now going to England carry war munitions, not necessarily ammunition or shells, but articles which are much more necessary to help England continue the war."

"Has Germany lost any submarines since March 17? (The date when the new submarine campaign against armed merchantmen opened) I asked."

"Yes," was the frank response.

"Do you know how they were lost?" Admiral von Holtzendorff was asked.

"No, we don't always hear when one of our submarines is lost. We don't always know whether they had a fair chance or not when they attempted to sink ships, surrounded as they are with such strict orders."

"What has been the success of the new submarine warfare so far?" he was asked.

Considers It Success

"In March more than 200,000 enemy tons were destroyed by submarines and mines on enemy coasts," was the response.

Considered Success

"In March more than 200,000 enemy tons were destroyed by submarines and mines on enemy coasts," was the response.

HOUSING AND HEALTH

(United States Public Health Service.)

Plans have just been completed for the erection of a series of model homes in the City of Washington for the purpose of demonstrating to the Nation the relationship between good housing and good health. These are to be known as the Ellen Wilson homes, and are not in the nature of an experiment, but are intended as a demonstration to the entire United States.

The intimate connection between bad housing and bad health is clearly recognized in Washington, where the alley dwellings have long been a matter of concern both to the health authorities and to public spirited citizens who wish the Capital city to be an example to the Nation. The alleys have been paved, sewers and water

The Only Car With This Patented Motor This 80% More Efficiency Hudson Super-Six Engine Wear Almost Abolished

HUDSON is the only car with the Super-Six motor in it. This motor is a Hudson invention. It is controlled by Hudson patents.

76 HORSEPOWER

In the Super-Six, a small light, simple motor is made to yield 76 h.p. The cylinders are 3 1/2 x 5, as in most Light-Sixes. The motor follows standard practice in all respects save one. But one new principle, covered by our patent, eliminates vibration. It makes the Super-Six the smoothest-running motor in the world.

Friction in the motor is reduced to almost nothing. So this motor delivers 76 horsepower, where other like-size motors deliver 42. That's an increase of 80 per cent.

WONDROUS FEATS

This vast reserve power in a light car results in marvelous performance. No other stock car in the world has matched it. The fastest time ever made by stock touring cars has been made by the Super-Six. No car has ever matched it in quick acceleration. It has climbed hills on high gear which no other car ever climbed on over second speed. No other like-size motor of any type approaches the Super-Six in power.

DOUBLE ENDURANCE

This smoothness eliminates wear. This has been proved by the hardest tests a stock car ever stood. In all probability, this invention doubles the life of the motor. Then, a motor with this power is never taxed. It is rarely run at more than half load. These facts mean vast economy.

LET IT PROVE

This 80% of extra efficiency seems unbelievable. But the Super-Six is here. In a half-hour test you can find it out.

See its marvelous performance. Watch its flexibility, its quick response. Mark its bird-like motion.

Its feats will amaze you. After that, you will choose the Super-Six. You will wait for it if necessary. No other type of motor will content you in a fine car.

All Other Cars Outrivalled

At Sheephead Bay, under A. A. A. supervision, a 7-passenger Super-Six stock car excelled all former stock cars in these tests:

100 miles in 80 min., 21.4 sec. averaging 74.07 miles per hour with driver and passenger.

75.68 miles in one hour with driver and passenger. Standing start to 50 miles an hour in 6.2 sec.

During these tests the car was driven 1,350 miles at top capacity, at speed exceeding 70 miles per hour, without discernible wear on any part.

THE RACE

What laid the future for the race? Now hurrying with swift pace to ruin? The insensate strife, unfeeling, its very life may yet determine at its close. A status none could presuppose. The possible of course that when the race becomes exhausted, then as conqueror and as conqueror Confuse what they were fighting for. While striking hands in friendship, the wrecks of nations heretofore inevitable, another race may rise to fill the foremost place. With growing self-conceit obsessed. The yellow race might try to wrest Supremacy. The very chance Of centuries would then advance All effort even to success. And probing by the distress Of the Caucasian, who will say Mongolian or yet Malay? Would not to the ocean rise. Thought fraught with deep and great purpose? So it behooves the warring race To end the pray of disgrace. In which it is involved before. Its rule of centuries is over. Before the oriental tide Of yellow millions sweep aside. Or overwhelm. May means be found The clutch of Peace to sound— Of Peace as lasting as profound.

There are rumors that Hon. Wellington Noone of Peterboro may be named as a candidate for vice president on the national ticket. If Martha Ricker should run for vice president on the Republican ticket, and Uncle H. Noone of the Democratic ticket, some of its loyal sons of the Granite state would be puzzled whom to vote for. Something to Remember.

Timely and important are the words of a contemporary which calls attention to the necessity and propriety of the practice of thrift at the present time. It is well that thrift should be practiced at all times, but just now there are conditions which are liable to blind many to the value of this old-fashioned virtue and lead to recklessness in expenditures when care should be exercised as a provision against the time when conditions cannot be expected to be as they are now.

The war has produced a business boom in this country. The wheels in practically all industries are humming; the demand for labor is pressing and wages are high as a rule. Any man able and willing to work can find employment at good pay. Manufacturers are rushed with orders and all the conditions combine to constitute what are commonly known as "good times." The danger is that the thoughtless will forget that these conditions will not last forever and neglect to make hay while the sun shines. This should be done by laying aside something while the boom is on, as a safeguard against pressure when the change comes, as it inevitably must. There will always be business and employment, but booms do not last forever. They come and go, and it is the wise man who does not forget this when the conditions of business and employment are to his liking.

The European war, which is responsible for much of the pressure in business and industry at the present time, will come to an end. No one knows when, but end it must. Following its close there will undoubtedly be more or less of a reaction, and thoughtful people should now be preparing for that day. The industries of Europe will be seeking our markets; the tide of immigration will help to swell the supply of labor and the chances for earning and saving money will not be all that they are now, though they will never be wholly lacking in such a country as the United States.

France has long been famous as one of the most thrifty nations in the world. At the beginning of the war she possessed a vast amount of wealth with which to meet the situation, and to the people of this country it may be surprising to learn that the people of France are steadily depositing money in the savings banks in spite of the great burden of the war. Americans might well learn a lesson from the people of France, who know how to live within their incomes and thus to be prepared for war or other emergency. It is to be feared that those who fail to improve the opportunities now presented may have occasion to regret their heedlessness in the not-distant future.

If there is any allowance left after considering the reports of Villa's death it may be in order to apply it to the story of the New York convict who claims that he buried the body of Dorothy Arnold of that city five years ago. The young woman mysteriously disappeared from her home and has never since been seen or heard from. But these belated "confessions" by convicts are to be taken with many grains of salt until they are backed up by incontrovertible evidence.

The two recent accidents on the New Haven railroad must be highly disturbing to President Elliott, who went to the head of the system at a time when its record for safety was not of the best. Mr. Elliott has worked hard to place the road on a safe and solid footing and has accomplished much, but these two crashes show that the system has not been rendered immune to trouble.

That the automobile season is in full swing is evidenced by the rapidly increasing list of fatalities and injuries caused by the careless handling of the machines. There will be more automobiles on the roads this year than ever before, and it is not pleasant to think that the number of casualties will probably show a proportional increase.

The New England Methodist Episcopal conference has removed the ban on dancing, card playing, theatre going, etc. This reminds one of the man who told his boy to do several things and was flatly refused in every instance. "Well, hang you, do as you please," he finally snapped out, "I will be obeyed."

New York claims that among its criminals unmarried men outnumber the married men about two to one. However, the majority cannot be charged with wife beating or family desertion.

It is well that the Panama canal was reopened without ceremony. What the country and the world want from that quarter now is business and not talk.

WAR AFFECTS POSTAGE STAMPS

Dye Is Scarce and Change in Color Is the Result.

People who have occasion to use postage stamps in any considerable quantity have already observed the wide variation in the tone of color employed in the printing of the 2-cent stamp. The hue ranges from a deep brilliant red, to a very sickly pink.

This is not because of carelessness in the government bureau of engraving and printing, but to an extremely serious scarcity of "red lake," the coloring matter used in producing the stamps.

This material is imported. The supply on hand is going fast, and there seems to be scant hope of getting more, at any price. The normal cost of the red coloring matter is 25 cents per pound. The United States cannot assure itself of a sufficient amount, even though willing to give up at the rate of $1.40 per pound.

The news contained in the morning papers that Germany has agreed to allow 15,000 tons of dye-stuffs is gratifying and it brought about might go a long way toward relieving the postage stamp situation. Local postal authorities, however, point to the fact that an agreement must be reached with the Allied powers before this shipment can even start for America, and that viewed from any angle the outlook is not any better than it should be.

Postmasters who have grumbled and exacting customers are working overtime explaining the wide difference in tint of stamps of any one denomination. It is more noticeable in the 2-cent variety than any other, because that stamp is in more demand than the higher denominations. The green shade of the 1-cent stamp, also much used, is also undergoing gymnastics in the matter of color.

Joseph B. Ralph, supervisor and of the federal engraving bureau, saved the day for the stamp situation by cornering the color market when war was first declared. He bought up all the color in sight, at a cash outlay of something like $50,000, but it is estimated that his action saved the government at least $100,000 which it would have cost to obtain the same amount of coloring matter a little later. The purchase included red lake, Prussian blue, Chinese blue and chrome green.

SUBMIT TO INOCULATION

Two Young Hospital Orderlies Risk Lives to Identify Dread Germ.

Boston, April 22—Holding their lives more lightly than their devotion to that science which combats the maladies that afflict humanity, two young men in full possession of mental and physical vigor, voluntarily submitted yesterday at the City hospital to an inoculation, which injected into their veins, a substance believed to consist of germs of one of the diseases most dreaded by mankind.

The inoculation was made by Dr. Frank B. Mallory, the distinguished pathologist of the Harvard Medical school. His subjects were Hymwel R. C. Mott and Hugh C. Rice, who for several months have been serving as orderlies in the City hospital, incident to their training as nurses. The injection consisted of what Dr. Mallory believes to be the bacilli of scarlet fever.

Confronted with the seriousness of the experiment to which they were to be subjected, the two young men made their wills before submitting themselves to the ordeal. They had been warned that inasmuch as the power of the substance to be injected into them was unknown, the quantity deposited upon the experiment might prove too great, in which event death might come to them within 24 hours. Should the experiment prove successful Mott and Rice will have scarlet fever in its worst form and afterward will be exposed to those complications which so often follow the dread disease.

The purpose of the experiment is to afford to Dr. Mallory an opportunity to identify a bacillus, recently discovered by him, and which he believes to be the germ of scarlet fever. Should the theory of Dr. Mallory prove correct, a serum for the treatment of the disease will be quickly produced, and scarlet fever will be robbed of its terrors.

CURRENT OPINION

Quickest Way to End War Is to Make Financier Pay Its Cost.

The way to end war generally is to take profit out of war, and the first step in this is to end the use of the foreign office for diplomacy, for business and especially for concession seekers and financiers. Foreign relations ought to be conducted in the open and in a democratic way.

The second move to end war is to throw the cost of war on to the classes which now escape it, for wars and preparations for wars are paid for by indirect taxes collected for the most part from the poor.

The third step is to end the profit of the munition makers, of bankers and those who are enriched by the whole trade of killing men and preparing to kill men.

If we adopt these precautions and by so doing compel privilege which profits from war, to share in its terrible cost; if we take all profits out of war and end the use of the government by the financial interests, we shall have removed the main causes of war and war scare and will have made a long step forward toward disarmament and the adoption of tribunals for settlement of the disputes which it left to themselves ripen into war.—By Frederic C. Howe, Commissioner of Immigration at New York.

WILL FIGHT HARD TO KEEP MAINE

Democrats Will Use All Resources of Organization to Re-elect Johnson and McGillicuddy.

Washington, April 22—At a meeting of the National Democratic congressional committee, held Friday night, it was voted to place all the resources of the organization at the disposal of Senator Johnson and Representative McGillicuddy of Maine in their contest for re-election.

There is ample evidence of the administration's determination to make a supreme fight in the Maine race for Senator Johnson's re-election. The Maine election, coming on September 22 will have some bearing on the later New England elections. It is not on the National campaign itself.

Following close upon his elevation to the chairmanship of the pensions committee came the election of former Ingraham of Portland, a Johnson nominee for assistant secretary of war. Now comes the Democratic congressional committee pledge to make the going fast for Senator Johnson's opponent. It is said that Congressman McGillicuddy's district, the largest in the state will be the center about which the campaign will be waged.

DOES NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAY?

A large paint manufacturer asked this question of retailers throughout the country:

NO. 5 SAID:

"It seems to us that the best advertising we do, that is to say, what seems to bring the most apparent results, is newspaper space. We have tried them all, but this method seems to get the best results for the money put into it.

"We made a systematic test during the month of December in an effort to ascertain whether or not our newspaper ads were bringing new customers to the store. We found that they were and that they were bringing them in from unexpected localities."

PENETRATE FRENCH TRENCHES

But Germans Are Driven Out by Immediate Counter Attack.

(Special to The Herald)

Paris, April 22—German troops in a fierce night attack on Doud Mam's hill succeeded in penetrating the French trenches but were driven out by an immediate counter-attack. The Kaiser's forces also made an attack on the French positions at Caurello wood according to a report issued today, but there they were repulsed. In the attack at Caurello wood the Germans again made use of liquid fire, but without avail. The terrible bombardment opened by the Germans on the front between the Meuse and the village of Vaur on Friday continued during the night. No infantry attacks developed there but it is believed that the bombardment is being made in preparation for general assaults against the French position on the east of the Meuse. Early military experts analyzing the Verdun situation held that the French had regained the initiative on the Meuse, but declared that the French attacks of this week represented no general counter offensive, being designed rather to discourage further Teuton onslaughts.

The information given by the Admiralty will undoubtedly have great weight with the foreign office in determining the reply to be sent next week to the American government's latest note.

The inspector admitted that he and a squad of men had searched the cellar of a house near West Point, which declared that he had found no trace of Miss Arnold's body.

JILTED GIRL TAKES POISON

Failure to "Make Up" With Sweetheart Cause of Nurse's Act.

Portland, April 22—The condition of Miss Alice Parks, the nurse who is at the Maine General hospital, suffering from the effects of three bichloride of mercury tablets taken by her Friday morning when on her way here from Boston, is very critical.

The suicidal act of the young woman is said to have been due to her being jilted by an interne at the Boston City hospital.

Miss Parks, who for a year and a half had been training as a nurse at Dr. King's hospital, left Portland on Wednesday evening to visit the Boston hospital interne.

The young woman's friends here say that she thought to "make up" with the young interne at the hospital, who some time ago broke off their engagement.

Miss Parks did not appear to her friends here to be in a despondent mood when leaving. On the contrary she seemed to be bright and though anxious because of the intern's "mission" to Boston, did not seem to be worried.

She is thought to have met with a robust and deep disappointment in her visit to Boston and as a result of her failure at reconciliation sought suicide, while coming to Boston on the Boston boat.

Miss Parks was taken from the Portland boat shortly after its arrival here this morning and was attended by several physicians who had been summoned before the steamer docked. They ordered her removed to the Maine General hospital.

SAYS SAILORS WILL OFFER REWARD FOR MURDERER'S ARREST

Member of Crew of Washington States that $500 Has Been Collected and Will be Paid for Evidence Convicting Persons Who Killed George W. Stillson

It is the firm belief by the police officers that an arrest will be made in the mystery surrounding the death of George W. Stillson, who was brutally attacked and clubbed on Thursday on Fleet street, a few yards from his home. Every hour which passed on Friday brought some added information to the officials which will eventually lead to the conviction of the man or men implicated in the deed.

Several rumors were current during Friday evening and it was reported on excellent authority, although not confirmed, that the members of the crew of the U. S. S. Washington had secured a fund of $500 which will be offered as a reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the man who killed the sailor. The fund, which is in the hands of the city and county officials, are working in a steady and consistent manner in their attempt to unravel the mystery which appears at present almost insoluble. The possibility of a solution that Stillson's murderer is wanted, and badly wanted, is a fact that is not concealed by any of the officials and they intend to leave no stone unturned for the escape of the guilty parties when the time for action is right.

Authorities differ on the question whether the deadly blow was struck with a blackjack or some other weapon but physicians are of the opinion that the skull might have been crushed by the use of a blackjack had the blow been heavy enough. The finding of a piece of iron pipe in the near vicinity of the tragedy on Friday has led some to think that this may have been used, others holding to the opinion that whatever weapon had been employed was carried away by the robber.

The police are aware of one man who was seen a few minutes after the tragedy emerging from Sherburne Avenue and having every appearance of a man who had been running hard. The time of his being seen and the distance from the corner of Court and Fleet streets would allow of a person making this run had there been any necessity for haste. A good description of this man is in the hands of the officers. Some importance is being attached to memo books and papers belonging to Mr. Stillson and these will be in the hands of the police as soon as the medical authorities are through with them which will probably be sometime today. The officers are thoroughly confident that they will be able to clear the case up within a very short time and no additional detective assistance will be called.

NORWICH UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Northfield, Vt., April 22.—The entire corps at the University has been organized into a war strength company, and from now on all drills will be with this unit. Infantry drill is being specialized in anticipation of the Federal inspection, which will be held May 22 and 23. Captain Schindel of the general staff making the inspection as he has for the past two years.

Manager George D. Seier of the football team has arranged the following schedule for next fall:

Sept. 30—Trenton at Hartford.
Oct. 7—Worcester, 7:00, at Worcester.

Oct. 14—St. Michael's at Northfield.
Oct. 21—New Hampshire at Durham.
Oct. 28—St. Lawrence at Canton, N. Y.

Nov. 4—Middlebury at Middlebury.
Nov. 11—University of Vermont at Northfield.

Nov. 18—Conn. Agricultural College at Storrs, Conn.

Three new teams have been added to the list: namely, University of Vermont, St. Lawrence and Connecticut Agricultural.

The Board of Trustees of Norwich University will hold its next regular meeting in Dancy hall, at 10 o'clock, April 28. During the afternoon, they will be given an opportunity to witness an exhibition drill by the corps, after which Col. and Mrs. Reeves will give a reception in Dewey Hall to the trustees, members of the faculty, corps and citizens of Northfield.

Hospital supplies for the new Alnsworth infirmary are accumulating in a gratifying manner due to the commendable work of the Alnsworth Aid Association. This organization is made up of the wives of the members of the faculty, trustees and citizens of Northfield, and their work in proving both helpful and beneficial.

After Day will be observed by the members of the corps by setting out trees on the university grounds. A committee composed of Prof. W. A. Shaw, Prof. C. A. Carleton, and Charles A. Plumley, has made arrangements for practically 1000 shade trees which will be divided among the four classes and planted according to the scheme called for on the particular plot allotted to their care. The trees are of a hardy species, and their growth will do much in the way of adding to the attractiveness of the university grounds.

FISH LOWER THAN MEAT

(From Educational Dept., New England Fish Exchange.)

Meats are again rising in price. It is sort of between seasons in the edible line. Fresh vegetables still show a disposition to be high in price. With meats and vegetables up, the eye of the general public is more than ever focused on fish, which, with the present well-stocked market, seems to be the cheapest food on the map.

Seafoods alone just now enable the housewife to prepare a hearty, tasty, satisfying meal at a moderate cost. A few short weeks ago, fish itself was scarce. The wholesale dealers at Boston, making a mad scramble to supply the biggest Lenten demand in years, found themselves hard pressed for a supply. And up went prices.

Last weeks, however, saw the end of the reign of high prices in the fish market. A few days of good weather, and lo, in came the steam trawler East Hampton, hauling 250,000 pounds of fresh mixed groundfish, the biggest catch of fresh fish ever landed at Boston! A half dozen other steam trawlers followed, each bringing a trip of over 100,000 pounds. There were schooners, too, well laden boats from the Channel and Georges, and other banks. And prices collapsed.

From now until next winter sets in, there will be a few bad weather weeks, when fishing is poor, and prices will rise slightly, but it is extremely improbable that a long continued scarcity will again drive fish prices to the heights they reached last month. In other words, from now on, fresh fish will be the cheapest food in the market.

At present, haddock predominates in the market. Cod, hake, pollock, eel, and halibut are also evident. The first mackerel have been landed in New York, one of the southern sailing fleet arriving with a small catch. Before long, this variety will be coming into Boston, and mackerel can be bought at low prices. Then will come swordfish and salmon, and the other varieties. In fact, the seeder after variety will be able to find whatever he wishes.

TO RECEIVE MINIMUM PAY

Theatrical People Win Fight for Recognition by Booking Offices.

Boston, April 22.—Actors and actresses appearing on the stages of Boston and other places throughout New England will hereafter have the satisfaction of knowing that they are bound to receive a certain minimum wage. This minimum wage has been set at $5 a day in Boston, and $3 a day and transportation outside of the city. Not only this, but booking houses will hereafter recognize the White-Rats Actors' Union, and there must be no discrimination against members of this union.

The adjustment of this matter, which for a time threatened trouble in some Boston playhouses, was reached yesterday at a conference between C. Wesley Fraser, manager of the Boston United Booking office, and the grievance committee of the Boston Central Labor Union, at the former's office on Tremont street.

The C. L. U. committee was called into the matter by the White-Rats Actors' Union, who demanded recognition of their union by the booking office, that the minimum wage they demanded be paid, and that there be no discrimination against members of the union in booking. The board was made up of Nicholas J. Lally, chairman; John J. Barry of the Theatrical Employees Union; F. C. Kingman, Musicians' Union; William C. Franke of the Moving Picture Operators' Union, and M. J. O'Leary of the C. L. U.

The White-Rats were represented by Geoffrey Whalen, deputy organizer of New England; Ernest Carr, an international officer from New York, and Counsel John L. G. Glynn. Manager Fraser was represented by Attorney William Collins. The meeting was very harmonious, an agreement being speedily reached. Mr. Fraser pledging himself on behalf of the booking office to see that the terms are faithfully carried out.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

Danbury Man Did Deed in Fit of Despondency.

Danbury, April 22.—Fred K. Flinders, aged 60 years, committed suicide Friday morning at his home here, having probably taken pills green, afterwards cutting his throat with a razor.

A glass with pills green was found in the barn. Mr. Flinders having returned to the house after the razor, despondency was the probable cause. Dr. J. V. Knapp and the selectmen were called.

Mr. Flinders is survived by four sons and two daughters. His wife died about a year ago. He resided on the road to Bristol just outside the village.

GIFFORD PINCHOT WANTS SHIELDS BILL REJECTED

Milford, Pa., April 21.—Gifford Pinchot believes that everybody truly interested in conservation in the United States should at this moment leave no means unused to prevent the passage of the Shields water power bill, which is now awaiting action by the United States House of Representatives. This bill has passed the Senate, and Mr. Pinchot and others are doing what they can to rouse a sentiment in connection with it before it is advanced any further on its way to become law. He thinks the Ferris bill is good legislation, but asserts that the Shields bill gives away the water powers on the nation's navigable streams, and he would not willingly see either it or the Myers bill enacted.

Characterizing the Shields bill as a raid on public property, he declares that there is still a good chance not only to stop this bill but to pass "a fair and honest water power bill" in its place. In a statement to The Christian Science Monitor on this subject Mr. Pinchot says:

"What I have all along charged against the Shields bill was confirmed in the debate. According to its own supporters, this bill turns over to the power interests water power equivalent to twice the mechanical power of every kind now used in the United States, or enough to meet the needs of 200,000,000 people. This it does in perpetuity, although pretending to limit the grant to 60 years. Small wonder there is pressure to get it through.

"On March 21 a substitute for the Shields bill was reported to the House of Representatives. Unlike the Shields bill, this House bill makes no perpetual grant of public water power, but wisely and in fact sets a limit of 50 years. Nevertheless, it is not yet a good bill. For example, it gives away the public water powers without compensation. There is no reason why the water power corporations should not pay for what they get. The rest of us do. The House bill should be amended accordingly.

"If the House corrects its own bill and then passes it, the good bill from the House and the bad bill from the Senate will go to conference, and the differences will be adjusted by the conferees. The managers of the water power campaign believe that a majority of the conferees will be friendly to them, and will report a bill to the House, probably in the confused and crowded final hours of the session. Such a plan has often served the special interests in the past, and it is dangerous now.

"During the debate on the Shields bill, this course was openly advised. There was under discussion an amendment giving preference to the applicant for a public water power who offers the best terms to the public. One of the supporters of the Shields bill, Senator Nelson of Minnesota, after referring to the amendment as 'bad and vicious,' went on to say: 'It is something that we can eliminate in conference. We might let it go in and then dispose of it in conference.' This is in the Congressional Record of March 8, 1915, page 4235.

"We can beat this plan only by letting the people understand the facts. This the power interests have set out to prevent by confusing the public mind with interested statements and personal attacks.

"I am asking for help once more to get the House to pass a good bill, and then to stand by it, no matter what the conferees may do. If the House stands firm, the people will win this fight. But the House needs to know that the people are behind it.

"Let me call attention again to the Ferris bill, a good bill dealing with water power on public lands and national forests, which has twice passed the House. An unalterable substitute, the Myers bill, now before the Senate, gives the public water power away in perpetuity. Under it, the power interests could occupy and exploit the Grand Canyon itself, the greatest natural wonder on this continent.

"The water power interests want everything or nothing. In the last eight years they have killed eight water power development bills that were fair both to the corporations and to the public. What the people need is water power development on equitable terms without further delay. They can have what they want by letting the House know it."

FOR ADEQUATE NATIONAL DEFENSE

New York, April 22.—Fifth avenue, the busiest and richest thoroughfare in the country, has taken a stand for adequate national defense with the provision that defense measures be adopted not according to the views of politicians but rather with the advice of the general staffs of the Army and Navy. As a result of a referendum taken among the members of The Fifth Avenue Association resolutions are now being sent to President Wilson, Secretaries Baker and Daniels and the senators and representatives at Washington urging the acceptance of adequate defense plans, including the mobilization of the physical resources of the country.

The Fifth Avenue Association includes in its membership many of the country's strongest personalities whose business or personal interests center on or near this great thoroughfare. Some forty trades and professions and over twenty large banks and trust companies are represented on the Avenue.

Some of the best-known figures on the board of directors of the Association are George C. Boldt, John D. Crimmins, Michael Dreier, Michael Friedsam, J. M. Gidding, Ogden L. Mills, Walter Stabler, Robert Grier Cooke, and Arthur Williams.

The defense resolutions are as follows: "Whereas, the purpose of the establishment of this republic was, among other things, as stated in its Constitution, to provide for the common defense, and thereby to secure to ourselves the blessings of liberty and peace, and

"Whereas, this nation is today without adequate defense by sea or land and is almost wholly without the means to protect its territory, defend its people or safeguard its institutions against possible aggression, and

"Whereas, we recognize that the attainment of a proper measure of common national defense involves the application of the highest mechanical and scientific knowledge and technical skill and experience, and that in formulating legislation and adopting plans for the adequate protection of this country the views and opinions of the trained staffs of the Army and the Navy should prevail as to the personnel and equipment needed to insure the purpose in view.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that we urge the prompt adoption by Congress of such measures of national defense as have been and may be recommended by the General Board of the Navy and by the General Staff of the Army, including the organization and mobilization of the physical resources of the country; and be it Further resolved, that copies of these resolutions be transmitted to the Senate and to the House of Representatives and that a copy thereof be transmitted at once to each Senator and Representative of the National Congress, to the Secretary of War, to the Secretary of the Navy, and to the President of the United States.

Don't's Regrets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without gripping and without after effects. 25c at all drug stores.

Good singing, clean, clever comedy, new songs and bright jokes is the program for Monday evening at the Little Bowery Minstrel Show at the Portsmouth Theatre.

The police are working on the Sullivan murder case very thoroughly and it is but to keep cool. The Herald believes the police will get the guilty parties.

The police are not pleased over some of the newspaper stories about the murder. It is not fair to insinuate who committed the crime until the facts are established.

BEGINNING LESSONS IN DRESSMAKING

The use of the pattern—Take your pattern out of the envelope, unfold the pieces and spread them out. It will seem very simple to you after the complicated jig-saw puzzles of a few years ago. Each piece is numbered, and on the back of the pattern envelope you will find its picture clearly named, so that you'll know just what it is.

YOU AND YOUR NEEDLE

One of the great delights of sewing is that you can sew and think at the same time.

FORMER EMERYWILL ALLOWED*Widow of Late Judge Emery of This City Given Entire Estate.

Mrs. E. B. Emery, second wife of the late Judge Samuel W. Emery of this city, and named as executrix in a will, twice broken, which left practically his entire estate of $60,000, to her, presented for probate yesterday in the Suffolk court at Boston, a prior will which Judge Grant allowed without objection, following assent of the four children of a previous marriage.

The will, which has twice been a subject of litigation, cut off the testator's children with $1 each. These children are Samuel Emery of this city, who died and was both of the former testator; Mrs. Maud B. Emery, widow of Benjamin, Mrs. Mabel H. Weeks of Amesbury and Margaret H. Emery of this city.

The will was presented yesterday, was made on October 17, 1903, almost immediately after Emery's first wife had secured a divorce and it left one cent to each of the children, the residue to Mary E. B. Connors of Newmarket, to whom he was then engaged, and now Mrs. Emery's second. She, as in the biller will, was named as executrix.

When seen by a representative of this paper Saturday morning, Mr. Emery stated that the affair had been settled entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned.

THEY DID NOT STAY HERE LONG*Strike Breakers on Boston &
Maine Go Back to Boston.

Forty or more men sent to this city by the Boston and Maine on Friday to work in the places of the scab men who walked out a few days ago, did not stay on the job long. The men, or at least some of them, claim they did not understand the situation here and thought they were engaged to perform work. Another story has it that they became dissatisfied with the work and the food and quit on that account.

railroad officials claim that a greater part of them were not the kind of men fitted for the work, and being unable to do what was required of them, most of them were sent back to Boston. However, eleven of them remained here and are working in the local yard crew.

SEVEN TEAMS IN LEAGUEWidder Shoe Co.'s Nine Is

MANY OUT FOR JOBS AS WARDEN

Commissioner-to-be George A. McIntyre of the State Fish and Game department has his hands full these days in poring over the qualifications of the half hundred people who aspire to serve the state as game wardens, when McIntyre assumes office in another month or so. There are eight jobs to give and it is no easy matter to select the most meritorious from among the number who would serve.

The sale of tickets at the box office of the Portsmouth Theatre in the past two evenings for the performance of the Little Bowery A. C. show on Monday, has been large. NO INCREASE
FOR POLICE

Officers Wanted Advance
From $2.75 to $3.00
Per Day.

The petition of the members of the police department for increase of pay will not be granted.

The men recently requested an increase from $2.75 to $3.00. It is understood that the city council finance committee applied to the board of police commissioners, to help keep down expenses in the police department when the appropriation bill was under discussion.

The only additional expense of the police board this year was in the request for $2000 or $3000 for the installation of a call box system which the city finance committee refuse to grant.

Finding that the council would not allow this appropriation, the commissioners considered it useless to present the petition for increase of pay for the officers.

At the present time the Manchester police department is the only one in the state where the rate of pay is $3.00 per day. Portsmouth is the second with $2.75. The most of the police of the cities and towns of the state are paid at the rate of $2.00 and $2.50, according to information in the hands of the local police board.
